This form can be used by both investor service clients and clients of investment advisors to request a tax-reportable Qualified Charitable Distribution (QCD) or create a Standing Authorization for future QCD requests from your eligible IRA account.

1. About Qualified Charitable Distributions ("QCDs")

- A. A QCD is generally a federally non-taxable distribution of funds from your eligible Schwab IRA to a qualified charity. State tax rules may vary.
- B. Generally, a qualified charity can be a 501(c)(3) organization and eligible to receive tax deductible charitable contributions. Some charities may not qualify for QCDs, including private foundations, donor-advised funds, and supporting organizations. (Please note: Private foundations, charitable supporting organizations, and donor-advised funds including DAFgiving360™ are not considered qualified charities for QCD purposes.)
- C. A QCD may be taken from the following IRA types: Traditional IRAs, Rollover IRAs, Inherited IRAs (excluding those owned by a Trust or Estate), and inactive SIMPLE IRAs/SEP-IRAs that no longer receive employer contributions. The following account types are NOT eligible for a QCD: employer-sponsored retirement plan accounts or non-retirement accounts.
- D. The Account Holder must be age 70½ or older on the date of the distribution.
- E. Maximum annual exclusion amount for a 2026 QCDs is $111,000 (indexed annually) per individual. The aggregate amount of deductible IRA contributions you make after you turn 70½ to your IRA will reduce the amount of a QCD that can be excluded from your gross income.
- F. During your lifetime, you are allowed to make a one-time election to distribute $55,000 to charities through charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder unitrusts, and charitable remainder annuity trusts. This one-time election is part of your annual limit.
- G. If you are RMD age, a QCD can count toward satisfying your annual required minimum distribution (RMD) amount to the extent you have not already taken a distribution that satisfies your RMD for that year. To qualify as your annual RMD, the funds must be distributed by your RMD deadline (generally December 31).

2. Charles Schwab Instructions

- A. By completing this form, you are electing to have no federal or state income tax withholding as your tax election for this request.
- B. You must ensure there is sufficient cash available in your account on the requested date(s) of distribution.
- C. Consult a tax advisor for specific tax guidance.
- D. It is your responsibility to ensure that your IRA distribution(s) comply with applicable laws and IRS rules.
- E. The check will be made payable to the charity and list your name as a donor. You are responsible for obtaining a receipt of your donation from the charity.
- F. All transactions requested on this form will be reported to the IRS on tax form 1099-R.

Instructions:

- A separate IRA Qualified Charitable Distribution Request Form must be completed for each IRA account.
- For a QCD to satisfy an RMD, allow adequate time for processing. Please return this form no later than November 15 to meet a December 31 RMD deadline or February 15 to meet an April 1 RMD deadline for those just turning RMD age. Schwab does not assume responsibility for making your distribution by the RMD deadlines.
- All transactions requested on this form will be reported to the IRS as an IRA distribution.
- Please complete this form, sign it, and return it to Schwab. If you have any questions, call us at 1-800-435-4000.
